

WHAT BAILEY SAID TOLD BY LAWYER

Attorney for H. C. Pierce Testifies Before Legislative Committee.

Says Senator Claimed He Would Fight Standard Oil Company.

Former United States Marshal Says Bailey Paid Loan.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 26.—The legislative committee of investigation of Senator Bailey held only a short session at Austin this afternoon. Attorney J.
D. Johnson, of St. Louis, legal representative of H. C. Pierce, was again placed on the stand and began his testimony where it was left off last night.
Chairman O'Neal decided that the conversation in 1905 in Pierce's office in New York, at which Johnson, Pierce, and Bailey were present, could not be considered confidential as between lawyer and client, as Mr. Bailey, disinterested third party, was present, and therefore, the committee was entitled to know what was said.

Mr. Johnson said the conversation was concerning the Standard Oil Company again getting control of the Waters-Pierce Company, that Mr. Bailey was told, during the conversation, that it looked as if the Standard Oil Company had again gotten control of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company by purchase of stock from various stockholders, and that trouble might again come of it in Texas.

Mr. Bailey, Mr. Johnson testified, became indignant at the revelations, and was disinclined to believe the correctness of the report, and said:

"I don't believe a word of it, but if it is so I will do all I can against the Standard Oil Company as a monopoly in violation of the laws of Texas."

Former United States Marshal Sheb Williams, formerly of Paris, Tex., followed Johnson, and testified that the charge that Senator Bailey had been paid large sums of money by him in connection with the Government contracts was false; that he and Bailey had been friends for many years; that he had loaned Bailey considerable money, but that he had paid it all back as any other loan would be paid.

MRS. APPLETON SUES PUBLISHER HUSBAND

Seeks $100,000 Dower and Starts Action for a Separation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Daniel Sidney Appleton, the publisher, and his wife, who have figured prominently in New York's exclusive set, have separated.
Mrs. Appleton's lawyers, Joline, Larkin & Hathorne, appeared before Justice Amund in the supreme court today.
They were retained by Mrs. Appleton in a suit to recover from her husband the principal and interest on $100,000 which she says her husband agreed to settle upon her at the time of their marriage, seventeen years ago, and did not. Besides this suit Mrs. Appleton has started an action for separation through James Osborne, lawyer.

Mrs. Appleton is now in seclusion at the Appleton country house at Morristown, N. J. Her husband lives in London, in which city he has been acting as foreign representative of D. Appleton & Co., of which he is a stockholder.

NAVY YARD CONCERT TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The Marine Band Orchestra, under the leadership of William H. Santelmann, will give the following program at its concert at the Navy Yard tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

March, "The Man Behind the Gun." Sousa; overture, "Oberon," Weber; piano solo, "En Soudaine," Telle; selection, "Faust," Gounod; waltz, "Wiener Blut," Strauss; two movements from Symphony "Rural Wedding," Goldmark; (a) Intermezzo allegretto, "Bridal Song" (b) Scherzo "Serenade," characteristic, "Down South," Myddleton; galop "Glück im Spiel," Fahrbach.

MRS. MARSHALL FIELD REPORTED ENGAGED TO MINE PRESIDENT

gatherings. For some time, however, she did not do much entertaining, and when it was noted about that she would wed Marshall Field it was thought she would again take her place in the front rank of hostesses.

Mr. Field and Mrs. Caton were married in the fall of 1905 in St. Paul's Cathedral, London. The wedding was attended by Ambassador Reid and his suite, besides relatives of Mr. Field and Mrs. Caton. Spencer Eddy, at the time charge d'affaires of the American embassy at St. Petersburg, was among the guests.

Mr. Field became ill so soon after the return to the city that the big Prairie avenue home was not thrown open for the reception of guests, and it was thought that it would be the order there.

David D. Jones has offices at 294 Dearborn street, Chicago, and is a prominent member of the Iroquois University, Onondaga, and Chicago Literary clubs.
He is president of the Mineral Point Zinc Company, and is a graduate of Princeton of the class of 1876.

TAKE ALGER'S BODY HOME FOR BURIAL

Interment Will Take Place on Monday, With Military Honors.

On a special Senatorial train of five coaches the body of the late Senator Russell A. Alger is being conveyed to Michigan, accompanied by members of the family, the Senatorial committee and members of the Michigan delegation in Congress.

Brief funeral services, which were simple and without pomp, were held at the residence in Sixteenth street northwest yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and at 4 o'clock the train departed for the Senator's old home in Michigan.
The President, Vice President, nearly all the Senators who are in the city, Representatives, Cabinet members, members of the Supreme Court, public officials, and prominent citizens crowded the Alger mansion to pay their respects to the dead statesman. Aside from these, there were members of the G. A. R., Loyal Legion, and Spanish War Veterans' associations in attendance.

Over the flower-laden mahogany casket in the main drawing room, the services were conducted by the Rev. Edward Everett Hale, the Senate chaplain.
There were prayers by both Dr. Hale and Dr. Wallace Radeloff, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, who had been Senator Alger's pastor for years. A brief scriptural reading ended the service, there being no music.
Resting upon the center of the casket was a large floral wreath from the Senate, while at the head was a huge cluster of white roses sent by the President immediately after he learned of the Senator's death. Numerous other floral designs, sent by officials, Senators, and personal friends of the Senator, were banded against the casket.
On the center of the lid was a silver plate, with the inscription: "Russell A.
Alger, February 27, 1858—January 24, 1907." The coffin was of plain mahogany, with black cloth covering and metal linings.

The house was well crowded with friends of the deceased and family when the President arrived, accompanied by a few moments before 2 o'clock.
After the ceremony he was driven to the White House, where he is officially representing the Senate at

PRESIDENT OPENS JAMESTOWN FAIR

Official Program of Exercises for April 26 Made Public.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 26.—The official program for the opening of the Jamestown Exposition on April 26 is made public this afternoon by Secretary G. T.
Shepherd. It is as follows:

Opening prayer by the Right Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of southern Virginia.
Address and introduction of the President of the United States by Hon.
Harry St. George Tucker, president of the exposition.
Address by Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, at the conclusion of which the President will press the button that will set in motion the machinery of the exposition.
After the opening exercises the President, accompanied by the governors of States and their staffs, will inspect troops on the grounds.

ONLY FIVE WEEKS OF CONGRESS SESSION

of twelve Senators accompanied the remains to Detroit.

The House last week took action which it is hoped will result in the Washington as the big center of the Government of the United States. It voted to abolish the eighteen pension agencies which, situated in various parts of the country, now pay out the pensions to the soldiers and their widows.

As a result of this action, Washington will be the one great distributing center for pensions and every pension drawn under United States laws, will be sent to the pensioner from this city.
It is estimated that this reform will save the Government $32,000 per annum.

Washington Well Treated.

In the river and harbor appropriation bill, which was reported to the House yesterday, a total appropriation of $3,000, 000, for the city was generously treated.
Allowance of money were made for improving the Potomac and for dredging the Anacostia river. For the improvement of the Potomac river $25,000 is appropriated, and $127,000 is set aside for dredging the Anacostia river.

In the Committee on the District of Columbia Mr. Greene of Massachusetts tried to secure favorable action on his bill to give the local school teachers further advantages in the tenure of office enjoyed by them. The committee did not report the bill, and Mr. Greene will call it before the committee Thursday week.

In addition to several bills for the opening and widening of suburban streets, the committee reported to the House for passage a bill authorizing the Board of Education to maintain a system of free public lectures.

Boutell for Playgrounds.

Mr. Boutell of Illinois appeared as the champion for the public playground movement in the District. As the item in the District appropriation bill giving $75,000 for playgrounds was stricken from the bill on motion of Champ Clark on the ground that it was not authorized by existing law, Mr. Boutell introduced a bill making the playgrounds a part of the permanent law, by which the District Commissioners are empowered to establish and maintain a playground system and to acquire the sites for them by gift, purchase, or condemnation.

As soon as he can secure favorable action on this by Congress he hopes to have the appropriation for the $75,000 put through as the original objection to it would be removed.

TICKET OF BOSSES WINS WITH EASE AT PHILADELPHIA

Reyburn Leads Walton in Primary Contest by Over 40,000 Votes.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Under the new uniform primary law passed by the last session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature, Philadelphia today chose the following candidates for the coming February election:

For mayor—John E. Reyburn, Republican ticket; William Potter, City Party ticket.

For receiver of taxes—Hugh Black, Republican ticket; Franklin S. Edmonds, City Party.

The other candidates for various offices, while they were balloted for tonight, cannot be announced before Monday.

Chief interest centered in the Republican contest. John M. Walton was proclaimed as the candidate of the independent faction of the Republicans, while John E. Reyburn, supposed generally to have been picked by McNichol and Vane, the accredited organization bosses of the city, was the choice of the regulars.

Reyburn beat Walton by over 40,000 votes. Potter won over Blankenship by 8,000 votes.

The showing of the city party was a complete disappointment to its administrators. Republican leaders are jubilant.

MADHOUSE NOR CHAIR TO BE FATE OF THAW. SAYS CHIEF COUNSEL

mate relationship with Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, a most important witness for the defense, Mr. Hartridge said:

"Do you believe that the District Attorney will call Miss McKenzie to the witness stand?"

Mr. Hartridge also denied any knowledge of the reported intention of the Countess of Yarmouth to return to England, because of the severe illness of her husband, the earl.

MRS. HARRY THAW BUYS MAY'S GOWNS

Brother of Evelyn Nesbit Critiques Her and Chorus Girl.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Sarcastic comment was made by young Howard Nesbit, brother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, regarding the attendance of Miss McKenzie at the trial in company with his sister.

"I think my sister Evelyn makes a great mistake," said young Nesbit, "in having May McKenzie attend the court session as her companion. I have no doubt to cast any reflections upon Miss McKenzie, but a sense of propriety should prevent Evelyn from having Miss McKenzie with her. My sister is taking care of May McKenzie, buying her gowns, and paying her expenses at the Lorraine. This should not be."

Howard Nesbit, who has been subpoenaed as an important witness by the prosecution, is being kept in seclusion at a quiet hotel in Manhattan. He was asked to appear before District Attorney Jerome yesterday, and did so in company with Stanford White's former company with Stanford White's former private secretary. He went over his story with the district attorney, who regards him as a witness of extreme importance in establishing the fact that Stanford White was once the benefactor of his sister Evelyn, his mother, and himself.

Indignant at stories published regarding her presence at the trial as the companion of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, Miss May McKenzie tonight made the following statement at her apartment in the Hotel Lorraine:

"I shall certainly attend court Monday morning with Evelyn. I cannot believe that Harry Thaw has made any request that I cease attending the trial with his wife."

"There is no truth in the report that I am not on friendly terms with the Thaw family. It is cruel and unjust to publish such rumors, and as I am a witness subpoenaed at the trial, I shall certainly be present."

VIENNA SINGERS COMING.

VIENNA, Jan. 26.—The Vienna Male Choral Society has decided to visit America. The organization will leave Vienna on April 30, arrive at New York on May 3 or 4 and stay until the end of the month.
